

BUREAU BELIEF
DUMBARTON CLUB

Plate Printers Worst Club-men by 5 to 2.

GAME FAST AND EXCITING

Only One Run Separated the Teams Up to the Ninth Inning.

The Bureau Athletic Club scored its second consecutive victory of the season over the Dumbarton Club on Georgetown Field yesterday afternoon, winning 5 to 2.

The article of ball put up by both teams was fast and the game interesting up to the last inning. Up to that fateful session, the game was either tame, but today the Bureau broke up interest with a swat to the left meadow that pushed two runs over the pan and gave the Bureau the prize.

Star Went Wrong.

Charlie Thomas, the popular shortstop of the Dumbartons, reckoned by many as the best amateur player in the District, was the only man on either team who did not play good ball. The excitement put up by this Dumbarton man would have been enough to make Dowie to drink. He made all the errors for both teams. Five were his lot. Two of these gave the Plate Printers runs.

Keane and Burbank captured the batting honors for the losers, the former getting two singles in four times up, and the latter a triple out of two times at bat. The base running of Burbank was also worthy of more than passing note.

For the Bureau, McCauley and Mullin batted most effectively, each getting a pair of hits. Fitzpatrick and Lowe, both of Dumbarton, showed to the best advantage, the former being exceptionally quick to gather in runs and whip them over to the initial base.

The First Scoring.

The Bureau went to bat first, Charlie Lord drew four wide ones, and dead-headed it to first. Hooks went to second on an error by Thomas, but Keane rabbled the leather in center field, and threw him out at the plate. McCauley planted one in left, and Hooks scored.
The Bureau added another in the fourth. After two were out, Torney hit Thomas, who threw a ball to second, and Torney anchored on second on the play.
Then Glotzbach got in the first real swat of the game, Lord went on to second, and Glotzbach drove to first, good for two stations, and Torney scored.

Dumbarton Starts.

Dumbarton got in the running in the fifth. Smith struck out, but Carter poked one past Lord and McCauley. Lowe smashed one to center field, and Dumbarton was in the lead, 1 to 0.
To Lord, forcing Carter out to second, Keane put one over second, and Lowe scored.

Each team got another run in the sixth session. For the Bureau Mullin and Torney singled in succession, and each moved up a base on a passed ball.
Glotzbach hit one down to Lowe and Mullin nicked a counting blow.

Burbank planted his weight against one for three bases, and scored when H.
Beckett dropped a third strike, and threw to first to retire Owens. That was all the scoring that was done until the last inning, when the Bureau made things secure by hitting Glotzbach on balls. Lord singled, and as the result of an effort to catch Beckett at third on the play, Lord went on to second. Then Hooks made his only hit of the game, a single to left that scored both men.

The Dumbartons play the Sixth Presbyterian team of the Church League, on Wednesday, June 23, at 8 o'clock, against the Commissioners on Saturday.

DAHLER AS MEEK
AS MARY'S LAMB

That bunch of McGraw's are a scrappy lot.

Perhaps that's why they win.
Jack O'Connor, "Rowdy Jack," and Pat Tebeau used to say that many a game was won by scaring the other fellows, and particularly the umpire.

Bill Dahler has a reputation of being a rip-snorting proposition, but when he joined the Giants he became as quiet as a purling brook, whatever purling brook is.

He is so completely subdued among these fighting Irish that he has barely the gumption to ask for a second helping at the table, and then speaks in a whisper.

There was a day when Bill Dahler would lie down and roll on the home plate to break up a game or throw bats at the umpire.

Now he has Mary's little lamb looking like John L. on the rampage, for every man in the club gets busy with the umpire or Dahler even goes with excitement.

In justice to the team it must be said that this pugnacious spirit by no means suggests rowdiness. It seems to arise from the desire for excitement and the peculiar perversities of the separate elements in the club.

Occasionally some Giant resents the little manager's remarks and insists on an explanation.

"If you wouldn't do so and so," says McGraw, "maybe you'd have a little more ginger. More sleep would put some life in you, old boy."

Highball Captures
The American Derby

Got Bad Start, But Made Great Finish and Beat Woodson a Length, Rapid Water Third—No Betting Allowed.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Highball easily won the great American Derby today by a length, with Woodson second, two lengths in front of Rapid Water. English Lad, the heavily played favorite, finished fourth, close up.

The Derby crowd, in its proportions, was visibly affected by the lack of betting. While there were nearly 30,000 people at the track when the Derby field went to the post, it was nothing like the crowds which attended in the last few years.

English Lad Favorite.

The appearance of the Derby colts sent the crowd into frenzies of delight.
Each horse received some applause, but the most of the eyes were on the horse carrying the most money—the great English Lad. Moharrb and Rapid Water delayed the start several minutes.

Rapid Water broke through the barrier on the first attempt at a start and it took some minutes to get the horses into line again. As the delay continued the excitement grew. Time and again they lined up and were called back.

When the barrier finally drew up, Proceeds, with Helgeson up, leaped to the front. In close pursuit was Rapid Water and behind came Volney. English Lad was off fourth in a commanding position, while Highball, shut off, was leading the rear division.

Turning into the stretch, Proceeds was still making the running, Helgeson evidently trying to run the head off the field, but Highball, laying near the rail, and perfectly ridden by Fuller, was trailing Proceeds, evidently easy.

Highball Cut Loose.

Behind him Rapid Water and Fort Hunter and Moharrb were fighting it out. Woodson was next, preparing to make his run. Right there, Highball cut loose, coming in with a rush. Apparently without effort he ran over the now tiring, and easily beaten Proceeds.
Woodson was coming like a shot, and ran in a close second.

Rapid Water, refusing to be shaken off, was still third, and they finished in that order, Highball winning by a length from Woodson, with Rapid Water third, two lengths away.

BOWLING LEAGUE
ON NEW LINES

Most Pretentious Plan Ever Suggested.

TWENTY CITIES INCLUDED

New York Promoters Arranging for National Organization That Should Do Much for the Game.

NEW YORK, June 18.—A bowling league that will be the largest league that has ever been known in the history of the game of tennis is now being formed by Frank E. Samuels, of this city; William Cordes, of Brooklyn, and John Floss, of Buffalo. The league will be called the National Interstate Bowling League, and will be composed of about twenty cities. There will be two sections—Eastern and Western—each to be made up of an equal number of cities.

Samuels and Cordes are to be the managers of the Eastern section, which will be composed of New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Paterson, Newark, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Baltimore, Washington, and Boston. The Western section will be made up from Buffalo, Erie, Niagara Falls, Cleveland, Toledo, Chicago, Milwaukee, Pittsburgh, and two others, and will be under the management of John Floss.

East and West Matches.

Each section will bowl independent of the other, the winner of each to bowl home and home at the conclusion of the schedules.

The history of bowling does not contain record of such a tremendous undertaking, and the clearest bowlers of the country will undoubtedly be brought into the teams from their section. The National Interstate League this year had a circuit of New York, Paterson, Brooklyn, and Philadelphia. The expense attached to these teams has been great, owing to each club having made the circuit four times.

The expenses of one club alone aggregated nearly a thousand dollars. In the new league it is probable that each city will be visited once only.

Final arrangements are now being made, and will be completed in the course of a week or ten days.

Took Two Out of Three From Rath-skellers by Narrow Margins.

Warren Best Individual.

The Palace quint won two of the three games bowled against the Rathskeller on the Palace alleys, in the District Duckpin League on Friday night.

All of the games were close, never more than seventy-four pins separating the teams in any of the series of three games. The first went to the Palace team, which had 47. In the next the Rathskellers came out on top, with a score of 45, 21 better than that made by the Palace men. The third game was for blood, and the Palace boys captured the set, with 465 to 23.

Warren carried off the individual honors, with a string of 117, 101, and 81.
Rodrick was the only other man to have two scores over 100, knocking over 101, 84, and 101.

HARD LUCK DAY
FOR OARSMEN

Forbes, of Cornell, in the Hospital.

COLUMBIA IS GOING WELL

Change in Drinking Water Causes Sickness—Penn's Men Suffer With Sore Hands.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 18.— This afternoon Ellis Ward took both Quaker crews to the start of the course, giving the freshmen crews a lead of four lengths and sent the varsity after them. The first crew was within a length of even at the two-mile mark, when a swell from a big steamer nearly swamped it.

Coach Goodwin sent the Columbia varsity crew over the full course on a time trial late this evening. The crews seemed to be going well, but nothing could be learned of the time. Goodwin says he did not take it.

Troubles of a Coach.

Today was one of hard luck for all of the oarsmen.
It is said tonight that Forbes, of the Cornell four-oared crew, will probably not be able to be in the race. His successor is not so strong, which fact is rather disheartening to Coach Courtney.

Most of the men in the Columbia camp are ill with dysentery, resulting from the change in drinking water.
Nearly all of the Pennsylvania men are suffering with sore hands as a result of the rough water on their first day out.
Their hands became wet and are now blistered.

Penn Vastly Off Color.

Coach Ward gave the crews only light work this afternoon. He has not been able to work the varsity as he desired, but hopes to give a crew most of his attention next week.

At Vassar Hospital tonight it was said that Forbes of Cornell may be around in a couple of days.

JUST A DOLEFUL TALE
FROM GOOD SHIP DOLPHIN

A tale of fierce umpling is told by the jolly Jack tars of the good ship Dolphin, who went to Alexandria yesterday, and played the Alexandria team an allego-ric game of baseball. The Jackies speak of it as an alleged game, because, they say, the umpire made it a farce.

The final score in the eighth inning, when the tars refused to stick any longer in the eighth inning. A tar swatted the ball into the crowd. A Jackie was hit by the pitcher, but nary a base took
he. In the next inning an Alexandrian was hit in the same place, and walked.

Several balls were thrown so wild that the catcher could not get them were called strikes. The culmination came in the eighth inning. A tar swatted
the ball into the crowd. A Jackie was hit by the pitcher, but nary a base took
he. In the next inning an Alexandrian was hit in the same place, and walked.

A ground rule was made, that a blocked ball should count for only one base, but the tars aver, Umpire Lykes applied the one-base rule only to them and allowed Alexandrian men to make all the bases they could on balls knocked into the crowd. A Jackie was hit by the pitcher, but nary a base took
he. In the next inning an Alexandrian was hit in the same place, and walked.

House is giving great satisfaction as an umpire on the White Lot. Not only is he popular with the fans, but there is less kicking than there has been with any umpire except Betts. Both are of the best and the league would be wrong if it retained them for the remainder of the season.

MEXICAN WAR VETERAN

PARIS, Ill., June 18.—Daniel C. Burr,

He spent the day in meditation, eat-

Something Startling Also Expected From Gunton on July 4—Sixth an Easy Victim.

Married life and great expectations of getting married seemed to agree with some of the players on the Fourth Presbyterian team yesterday, when they met the boys from the Sixth, who are all single, for the benedicts won by 12 to 2.

Bielaski and Atchinson, two of the best players in the league, both did something that was unusual with them yesterday, when they got an error apiece.

The Fourths started in with their winning clothes on and won the game in the first inning. When they got four men to the plate they had everything their way after that, and during the entire game there was nothing to it but the Fourths.

Easy Sailing.

If the Fourths do not have a crimp put in them before long it looks as though they will have a clean sail, with no equals for the head of the list.
Just now the fans are expecting Wilson to take them down. The score:

A good many of the teams are giving great promises at the present time, and it is hard to tell which is to take the measure of the Fourths. The next team to meet that has a reputation is the Gunton, to be played on the Fourth of July. This contest will be watched with great interest by the patrons of the league, and a great crowd and good baseball is promised.
